Last year's survey sent to all COGS members indicated that the top three priorities were to celebrate weekly worship services, bible studies, and create sacred music together.

Question 1: During this time of COVID, is our present method of celebrating weekly worship, online adult classes, and providing music via Zoom, meeting your needs in these areas?

If not, what might we do differently to meet your needs?

Question 2: Beyond COVID what are your biggest concerns for the future of our church?
